- Prospects being affected by uncertainty over Brexit and the forthcoming US election

David Green, Chairman of Colefax, commented:

"Sales, broadly unchanged at £76.88m and pre-tax profit of £5.02m, reflect a year which became progressively more challenging in all of our major markets. Different factors have affected different markets notably the forthcoming election in the US, higher stamp duty in the UK and weak consumer confidence in Europe. Nonetheless, cash generation remained strong and the Decorating Division delivered an improved performance which largely offset the profit decline in the Fabric Division."

"Since the year end, the Referendum vote has created a great deal of uncertainty in both the UK and Europe. At this stage, it is too early to judge the extent to which our business will be affected. In our major market, the US, we are experiencing more difficult trading conditions which we attribute to concern about the November Presidential election. Despite the ongoing uncertainty we will continue to invest in our business with confidence and have a significant capital expenditure programme planned, with new US showrooms and a new Decorating Division showroom in the UK."

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Financial Results

The Group's pre-tax profit for the year to 30 April 2016 was in line with last year at £5.02 million (2015: £5.03 million) on flat sales of £76.88 million (2015: £76.80 million). Earnings per share were unchanged at 32.2p (2015: 32.2p). The Group ended the year with increased net cash of £10.1 million (2015: £6.9 million).

The Board has decided to propose an increased final dividend of 2.40p per share, a rise of 4% (2015: 2.30p) making a total for the year of 4.60p (2015: 4.40p), an increase of 5%. The final dividend will be paid on 10 October 2016 to shareholders on the register at the close of business on 9 September 2016.

This year's results reflect a year which became progressively more challenging in all of our major markets. Group profits for the first six months were up 13% at £3.27 million but for the second six months profits were down by 19% at £1.75 million. Different factors have affected different markets notably the forthcoming election in the US, higher stamp duty in the UK and weak consumer confidence in Europe. In our core Fabric Division sales were flat in reported terms but decreased by 3% on a constant currency basis and as a result profits reduced from £5.01 million to £4.53 million. The Decorating Division delivered an improved performance with operating profits of £221,000 compared to an operating loss of £139,000 last year and this largely offset the profit decline in the Fabric Division.

Despite flat sales the Group continued to generate strong cash flows reflecting tight control of working capital. Cash increased by £3.2 million to £10.1 million after dividend payments of £0.48 million and share buybacks of £0.32 million

Product Division

- Fabric Division - Portfolio of Five Brands: "Colefax and Fowler", "Cowtan and Tout", "Jane Churchill", "Manuel Canovas" and "Larsen"

Sales in the Fabric Division, which represent 87% of Group turnover were flat at £66.40 million (2015: £66.30 million) but reduced by 3% on a constant currency basis. Operating profit declined by 9.5% to £4.53 million (2015: £5.01 million) reflecting a generally challenging sales environment.

Sales in the US, which represent 58% of the Fabric Division's turnover increased by 3% in reported terms but decreased by 3% on a constant currency basis. There was a marked difference between the first and second half of the year with first half sales down by 1% and second half sales down by 5%. We attribute this slowdown to concern about the forthcoming Presidential election in November which has made consumers cautious at the luxury end of the market. In the current financial year we are planning to open our own showrooms in Boston and Atlanta. Previously we sold through agents and this will give us direct control over sales in these territories.

Sales in the UK, which represent 19% of the Fabric Division's turnover were flat during the year. We attribute this to the ongoing impact of the significant increase in stamp duty on the high end housing market. Our sales typically lag activity in the high end housing market. We believe that the impact of a slowdown in high end housing transactions has been partly offset by an increase in refurbishment activity on existing homes but our customers tend to spend more when they move house.

Sales in Continental Europe, which represent 20% of the Fabric Division's turnover, decreased by 8% in Sterling terms but by 4% in constant currency. As usual the performance by country was very mixed and there was no overall sign of a strong recovery despite significant monetary easing by the European Central Bank. In France which is our largest market the economy remained difficult and sales were down by 8% in constant currency. Sales in Germany, our second largest market, were down by 10% in constant currency but in Italy, our third largest market, sales increased by 9%. In our smaller markets the picture was more encouraging but overall trading conditions were challenging.

Sales in the Rest of the World increased by 4% to £2.03 million (2015 £1.95 million). The Middle East, Australia, Russia and China are our largest markets but are still a relatively small part of overall sales and represent an opportunity if current market conditions improve.

- Furniture – Kingcome Sofas

Sales of Kingcome furniture which are included within the Product Division and account for 3% of Group turnover increased by 7% to £2.62 million (2015: £2.45 million). Operating profit was £263,000 compared to £171,000 helped by a contract order at the start of the year. This business has relatively fixed labour costs and is therefore sensitive to small fluctuations in sales. The majority of sales are in the UK centred on London and as with the Fabric Division market conditions were relatively difficult during the year. Only 13% of Kingcome sales are currently generated overseas and export sales represent a growth opportunity.

Interior Decorating Division

Decorating sales, which account for 10% of Group turnover, decreased by 2% to £7.86 million (2015: £8.03 million) but operating profits were £221,000 compared to an operating loss of £139,000 for the prior year. The improvement reflects a change in mix between decorating work and low margin antique sales where trading conditions have been very challenging. As previously reported, this autumn, after over 80 years based at 39 Brook Street in Mayfair, the Decorating Division will be moving to new premises at 89-91 Pimlico Road. The move represents a significant change for the Decorating Division to an area which is synonymous with high end decorating in London and we are optimistic about the benefits of the new location. As part of the move we will significantly reduce the scale of our antiques operation which has experienced increasingly tough trading conditions in recent years. The decorating business serves a diverse international client base and had a healthy level of deposits at the end of the year.

Prospects

Since the year end the Referendum vote has created a great deal of uncertainty in both the UK and Europe, which is clearly not good for trading prospects. At this stage it is too early to judge the extent to which our business will be affected. In our major market, the US, we are experiencing more difficult trading conditions which we attribute to concern about the November Presidential election.

With almost 75% of Group sales made in overseas markets the devaluation in Sterling represents a growth opportunity. However, for the current year and a portion of next year we hedged our US Dollar exposure and therefore will not benefit from the post Brexit weakness of Sterling. Despite the ongoing uncertainty we will continue to invest in our business with confidence and have a significant year of capital expenditure with new US showrooms in Atlanta and Boston and our new Decorating Division showroom and offices in London.
